STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Participation in the Nexus Global HBCU College Tour is a privilege that carries the responsibility to behave respectfully, responsibly, and professionally always. As representatives of the Nexus Global student tour, students must demonstrate maturity, integrity, and consideration toward themselves, fellow students, staff, college representatives, hotel personnel, and community members.

This tour is designed to offer meaningful educational, cultural, and leadership opportunities, and depends on every student following the expectations below to help maintain a safe, productive, and enjoyable experience for all.

1. ETHICAL AND POSITIVE CONDUCT - Avoid fighting, bullying, harassment, threats, intimidation, theft, vandalism, disruptive behavior, profanity directed at others, or any conduct that harms or disrupts the group.
2. CURFEW & ROOMING COMPLIANCE - Observe the nightly curfew and follow all assigned room arrangements.
3. CONSTRUCTIVE MINDSET - Approach every experience with optimism, an open mind, and a willingness to support the group.
4. ACCOUNTABILITY & PROACTIVITY - Take ownership of your actions, participate fully, ask thoughtful questions, and make the most of each learning opportunity.
5. PREPARATION & PLANNING - Follow instructions, arrive on time, and safeguard all required materials, identification, medications, and personal belongings.
6. CIVILITY & RESPECT - Treat everyone with courtesy and respect while valuing differences in culture, background, beliefs, and perspectives.
7. INVOLVEMENT & COMMITMENT - Remain attentive and participate actively in campus tours, presentations, workshops, and all scheduled activities.
8. COURTEOUS COMMUNICATION - Communicate clearly, respectfully, and appropriately with peers, staff, college representatives, hotel personnel, and community members.
9. OPENNESS TO CHANGE - Respond to changes in schedules, plans, or circumstances with patience, flexibility, and cooperation.
10. INTEGRITY & COMMITMENT - Be reliable by following tour policies and staff directions, making responsible decisions, and fulfilling your commitment to the group.
11. SELF-REGULATION & ADHERENCE TO GUIDANCE - Remain with the group unless authorized otherwise by tour staff and follow all safety instructions and procedures.

Students not adhering to these codes of conduct will be removed from the tour and sent home at their parents' expense.

STUDENT MEDIA CONSENT AND RELEASE FORM

Nexus Global may photograph, record, or otherwise capture students participating in tours, meetings, educational activities, cultural visits, and related program events. Media may include photographs, video recordings, audio recordings, interviews, and student-created work.

With consent, Nexus Global may use this media for educational, informational, promotional, fundraising, social media, website, print, presentation, and program-reporting purposes. Media may be edited, reproduced, published, displayed, or distributed without payment or additional approval. Nexus Global will not intentionally publish the student's home address, personal phone number, personal email address, or medical information.

Student Name: _____

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Please select one:

- ☐ I give Nexus Global permission to photograph, record, and use my student's image, voice, likeness, interview, and student-created work for the purposes described above.
- ☐ I do not give Nexus Global permission to photograph, record, or use my student's image, voice, likeness, interview, or student-created work, except when the student appears incidentally in a large group or public setting where exclusion may not be reasonably possible.

I understand that consent is voluntary and is not a condition of participation. I may withdraw consent for future use by submitting a written request to Nexus Global; however, withdrawal will not apply to media already published, distributed, or included in completed materials.
